The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is an online application the Department of Education uses to determine if you are eligible to receive federal student aid.

What is the SMU FAFSA school code?

The SMU FAFSA school code is 003613.

Do I need my parents' tax information to complete the FAFSA?

If you are applying for graduate school, you are considered an independent student, and do not need to include your parents' information to complete the FAFSA.

What is the Expected Family Contribution (EFC)?

The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is a measurement of your ability to contribute toward your educational costs. As a graduate/professional student your EFC is not a factor in your eligibility for federal student loans.

When should I complete the FAFSA?

The FAFSA is available every October 1st for the upcoming academic year. New students planning to use federal student aid should complete a FAFSA while applying for admission. Continuing students will need to submit a FAFSA each year they plan to receive federal student aid.

Please reference the chart below to determine which FAFSA to complete based on your desired start date:

Start	Term	FAFSA Year
Sept 2020	Fall	2020–2021
Nov 2020	Winter	2020–2021
Jan 2021	Spring	2020–2021
May 2021	Summer	2020–2021

Do I need to complete the FAFSA each year?

Yes. Because eligibility for federal student aid does not carry over from one award year to the next, you will need to complete the FAFSA for each award year for which you are or plan to be a student.

What constitutes an academic year for federal student aid?

An academic year is the year for which financial aid is used to fund your education. Generally, this is the 12-month period that begins on August 1 of one year and ends on July 31 of the following year.

Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan

What is the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan?

- Be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen
- Have a valid Social Security Number (SSN)
- Be registered with Selective Service, if you are male (must register between the ages of 18 and 25)
- Be enrolled or accepted for enrollment in an eligible degree program
- Be enrolled at least half-time in an eligible program
- Maintain satisfactory academic progress
- Not currently be in default on previous student loans borrowed through FSA
- Not have exceeded the maximum aggregate loan limit

Learn more about federal student aid eligibility criteria on the Federal Student Aid website.

What is the aggregate loan limit?

The aggregate loan limit is the total amount that you may borrow in federal student loans for undergraduate and graduate study. In addition to borrowing limitations based on the cost of attendance for the program, students are also limited in terms of lifetime borrowing. The maximum aggregate loan limit for federal loans is $138,500. This amount does not include PLUS loans, nor private loans.

If the total loan amount you receive over the course of your education reaches the aggregate loan limit, you are not eligible to receive additional Federal Direct

Unsubsidized loans. However, if you repay some of your loans to bring your outstanding loan debt below the aggregate loan limit, you could then borrow again, up to the amount of your remaining eligibility under the aggregate loan limit. You can learn more about graduate annual loan limits on the Federal Student Aid website.

How do I find out if I am near my aggregate loan limit or have defaulted on a federal student loan?

Log in on the StudentAid.gov homepage to view your federal student loan borrowing history, and loan servicer details. Please note that private education loans are not listed on this site. Students in default are not eligible for additional federal loans. Contact your lender for default resolution options.

What is the difference between a Direct Unsubsidized Loan and a Direct Subsidized Loan?

Direct Subsidized Loans are available to undergraduate students with financial need. The U.S. Department of Education pays the interest on subsidized loans while students are enrolled in their undergraduate program. The Direct Unsubsidized Loan is available to undergraduate and graduate students and does not require demonstration of financial need. The Unsubsidized Loan begins accruing interest as soon as funds are disbursed. Learn more about the difference between unsubsidized and subsidized loans.

How much am I eligible for with the Direct Unsubsidized Loan?

Most graduate level students are potentially eligible to receive up to $20,500 per academic year from the Direct Unsubsidized Loan. Learn more about graduate annual loan limits.

How do I apply for the Direct Unsubsidized Loan?

To apply for the Direct Unsubsidized Loan, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

What is the current Direct Unsubsidized Loan interest rate?

Information on Unsubsidized loan origination fees can be found on the Interest Rates and Fees page of the Federal Student Aid website.

Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan

What is the Direct Graduate PLUS Loan?

The Direct Graduate PLUS Loan is a federal loan that graduate or professional degree students can use to help pay education expenses in addition to the Direct Unsubsidized Loan. Learn about Direct PLUS Loans.

How do I apply for the Direct Graduate PLUS Loan?

In order to apply for the Direct Graduate PLUS loan, you must first complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Once you have completed the FAFSA, apply for the Direct Graduate PLUS Loan by completing the credit application on the Federal Student Aid website. Also complete the Graduate PLUS Loan Agreement Master Promissory Note (MPN).

What are the next steps if I'm approved for the Direct Graduate PLUS Loan?

Loan Repayment

Do I have to repay my student loans while I'm in school?

You can defer payment on your federal student loans if you are enrolled at least half-time. You should be aware that although you can defer payments while you are in school, interest will still accrue on your loan(s).

The Unsubsidized Loan and Graduate Plus loan will enter into repayment six months after you graduate, fall below half-time status, take a leave of absence or withdraw from the program. Most private loans also have deferred payment options while you are in school; however, you will need to check with your loan servicer.

When do I have to repay my loan?

After you graduate, leave school or drop below half-time enrollment, you will have a six-month grace period before you are required to begin repayment. During this period, you'll receive repayment information from your loan servicer, and you will be notified of your first payment due date. Payments are usually due monthly. You are not required to pay while in school, however if you choose to, there is no penalty to prepay. Learn more about repayment timelines.

What are the repayment plan options and how do I select one?

The Department of Education (ED) offers multiple options for repayment. You may visit the ED website for more information on loan repayment plans.

Is there a repayment calculator or estimator that I can use?

Yes, visit the ED website for repayment estimators.

Can I consolidate my graduate loans and my undergraduate loans?

A Direct Consolidation Loan allows you to consolidate (combine) multiple federal education loans into one loan including both graduate and undergraduate loans. The result is a single monthly payment instead of multiple payments. Learn more about loan consolidation.

Are there any loan forgiveness options available?

In certain circumstances, all or a portion of a borrower's federal student loans may be forgiven under the federal government's loan forgiveness program. Please review the Department of Education website for more information on federal loan forgiveness programs.

Military Education Benefits

How do I apply for military education benefits?

To begin the process of applying for eligible military education benefits, visit the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs website. Questions regarding eligibility should be directed to the VA at 1-(888)-442-4551.

What documents are required to process military education benefits?

Visit VA.gov to access and manage your VA education benefits. If you are applying for Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits, complete the Education Benefits Application, which generates a request for a Certificate of Eligibility (COE). The COE is mailed to you within 6-8 weeks from submitting the application.

A copy of the COE must be provided to the SMU VA Certifying Official at the University Registrar's Office at VABenefits@smu.edu. Additional documentation is required to be submitted to SMU prior to receiving your benefits. Please visit our "Using Your Benefits at SMU webpage" for all required documentation.

How often do I need to request recertification?

Certification requests are sent out twice a year, in November and April. You will receive an email from VABenefits@smu.edu with instructions on how to request your certification.

Will my military benefits cover the entire cost of the program?

Please visit the GI Bill comparison tool to view what your VA benefits will cover at SMU.

What are the eligibility factors for the Post-9/11 GI bill?

You may be eligible if you served at least 90 days of aggregate service on or after September 10, 2001, or individuals discharged with a service-connected disability after 30 days. Servicemembers must serve at least 36 months on active duty to receive 100% of this benefit. Those with between 90 days to 35 months of active duty receive a prorated benefit based on active duty time. You must have received an honorable discharge to be eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill®. Learn more about the Post-9/11 GI Bill.

What does the Post-9/11 GI Bill® pay?

- Up to VA's annual tuition cap for private institutions, plus additional Yellow Ribbon funding (if applicable).
- A monthly housing allowance.
- Up to $1,000 a year for books/supplies.

How is the Post-9/11 GI Bill monthly housing allowance calculated at SMU?

A monthly housing allowance is paid directly to the student at the beginning of each month for the previous month. MHA will only be paid while the student is not on active duty. The housing allowance is prorated by the student's Post-9/11 GI Bill percentage and the student's enrollment. Students must be enrolled over half-time to receive MHA.

What other military benefits does SMU accept aside from the Post-9/11 GI Bill?

SMU accepts all chapters of VA education benefits and Tuition Assistance. A list of chapters can be found on our SMU Veterans website.

What is the current payment rate of benefits, including the Monthly Housing Allowance (MHA)?

The tuition and fee payment rate, and MHA are effective at the beginning of each military academic year on August 1st. Students exclusively enrolled in distance learning courses will be eligible for a MHA equal to 50% of the national average. The current rate table is located on the Education and Training page of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs site.

Because SMU is a private university, students who receive Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits are subject to a maximum tuition and fee reimbursement per academic year (August 1 through July 31). The amount of the national cap changes each year on August 1, and is available to be used from August 1 to July 31 of the following year. When VA benefits are calculated, the amount of this national cap must be expended before Yellow Ribbon Program benefits can be awarded, if applicable.

What is the Yellow Ribbon Program (YRP)?

The Yellow Ribbon Program allows degree-granting colleges and universities in the United States to voluntarily enter into an agreement with the VA to fund tuition expenses that exceed the annual national maximum cap per military academic year. Participating institutions choose their contribution amount, the VA matches that amount, and issue payment directly to the school.

Veterans who are utilizing Post-9/11 GI Benefits and who are entitled to 100% of their benefit may be eligible. For additional information on the Yellow Ribbon Program, visit the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs website.

Does SMU participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program (YRP)?

SMU supports our valued Armed Forces members and veterans and is participating in the Yellow Ribbon Program for the 2019–2020 academic year. To qualify for the Yellow Ribbon program you must be 100% eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill. At this time, active duty service members do not qualify for Yellow Ribbon.

For eligible students, SMU will contribute $7,500 per academic year. The VA will match the contribution amount, for a total of $15,000 per academic year. Yellow Ribbon can be utilized after the maximum VA annual tuition cap has been met.

Veterans who wish to be considered for the Yellow Ribbon Program must complete and submit the SMU YRP application. YRP application and all other required forms must be sent to VABenefits@smu.edu.
